

Spiti Valley Road Trip

About This Experience

Thinking of planning for a thrilling Road Trip to Spiti Valley? While Ladakh has become too popular these days, and many of us are keen to find a place that's a little less crowded yet holds the similar beauty of the Himalayas – what can be a better choice other than exploring Spiti Valley! A cold desert mountain valley located high in the Himalayas in the northeastern part of Himachal Pradesh, this gorgeous valley should be there on every traveller's bucket list. The word "Spiti" means "The Middle Land", which is the land between Tibet and India. To say the least, this Spiti Valley road trip will surely be one of the best experiences you've ever had! We will start our journey from Shimla, a buzzing hill station, and move ahead to Upper Kinnaur, crossing Narkanda and Chitkul, entering the jaw-dropping Spiti Valley. We'll explore the tiny little villages tucked in the Himalayas, and walk through the corridors of the ancient monasteries, soaking in the beauty and tranquillity of nature, before we finally arrive in Manali, via Lahaul district. This circuit is very popular, but we have our way to make it unconventional. Explore the real culture and lifestyle of the community and take a step towards culture and ecologysensitive travel. We'll be meeting the local people of the valley, binge on their delicacies, experience their way of life and above all, learn how they value the importance of nature. Kaza, the main town of Spiti, has been marked as a plastic-free town and you won't find any store selling products that have plastic covering, etc. That means there's no mineral water bottle available as well, and you need to carry your bottle during this trip. Come. Join Us. Let's Explore Together & Learn To Be Responsible Travelers!
