

Tavoor Hills Coorg Trek

About This Experience

A mere look at the Western ghat gives a feeling of belongingness and fullness. Combine it with adventure; you are in for an experience of a lifetime. Coorg is famous for its mountains, and misty-cold weather throughout the year. While most people go to chill in Coorg and indulge in the Kodagu cuisine with local fruit wines, others choose to trek and explore the hills of Deccan. We invite you to this offbeat trek, nestled in the heart of Kodagu district—‘Tavoor Hills Coorg Trek’ or ‘Dumchi Gudde’.

In fact, the reasons to choose this trek are far more than many—the most important one is to connect with oneself. We are living in the digital era, and getting the pleasure of knowing oneself seems more distant than ever before. As we explore the charismatic offbeat trails, glimpses of mountains, filling greenery, chirps of indigenous birds and footprints of animals will leave a mark on your soul. Along with trekking on the Tavoor Ridge, you will also go to the sacred ‘Triveni Sangam’. Along with this, you will also witness the origin of River Kaveri in Talacauvery.

Above all, you don’t have to involve in the planning, booking and looking for how-tos; Plan the Unplanned has already charted out a plan. In conclusion, go through the itinerary to know more, and book your experience with us.

Trip Highlights

1. Initially, meet fellow travellers and kick off your journey to Bhagamadala.
2. Secondly, take a dip in the holy Triveni Sangam.
3. Thirdly, trek on the offbeat trails of Tavoor hills and walk on the ridge to summit the peak.
4. Next, taste local wine, drink coffee and get indulged within the Scotland of India.
5. Finally, admire the serene views of Kopatty Hills from a distance during Tavoor hills Coorg trek.
